PREFACE

We, the class of nineteen hundred and forty-six, have chosen what we believe is a very appropriate theme for our yearbook; that is peace.

We would like to think of our 1946 "M" as a salute to peace, reconversion, and international good will. We would like to honor in some way the benefits of a peaceful world.

Our annual is also the result of an attempt to give a complete resume or picture of the varied school activities of Moline High School in the past year. We hope you enjoy reading it now, and in the years to come!

For the reader's convenience we have divided our book into several main sections; these are—

- Faculty
- Classes
- Organizations
- Athletics
- Student Life

DEDICATION

September 1945—peace at last!
And to whom do we owe that peace?
To Bill, to Joe?
Yes, to many Bills and Joes.
Where are they?
Can we thank them?
I'll tell you where they are.
In Germany, in France, in Bataan,
Or perhaps, Guadalcanal;
Okinawa, Tarawa — they are there.
The sea is home to many.
They are wherever there is a knoll and crude cross;
Battlescarred, perhaps, but proud.
They are far away,
Yet, can we thank them?
Yes, by living for them the lives they lost;
By building the things they would have built;
By honoring that which they honored;
By keeping bright and strong that which they died for.
We can thank them.
Let's not forget!

We, the class of 1946, dedicate this annual to all those men and women who died in World War II.

Here are our competent and friendly faculty who have for the past three years shouldered the ponderous task of impressing the fundamentals of "readin', 'writin', 'rithmetic" on the students in M. H. ### DAVENPORT 18 MOLINE 0

In the first Quad-City battle of the season the Moliners looked helpless against the Davenport Blube Devils, as they fell before their crushing aerial offense which accounted for two of the three Imp touchdowns. The Maroons were without the aid of Dick Larson regular quarter back and John Yolton lineman. It was Bob Paulsen who caused all the trouble for the Maroons as he tallied all three touchdowns. Giving out with the credit for the Moline side of the game, Gene Larson very capably filled the Signal calling slot although he had never played it before in his life.

GALESBURG 14 MOLINE 6

The Galesburg Silver Streaks scored the first conversions on the Maroons during the season as they romped to a 14 to 6 victory over the Moline griders, although like the first game of the season, the damage was done in first half. After that the Streaks could go nowhere and it was the Moline eleven who held the upper hand and could have tied the game except for the fact that the game ended when the Moliners were on the 5 yard line, after being hauled back 5 yards because of a penalty.

MOLINE 7 EAST MOLINE 6

It was a joyous night for the Moliners when they chalked up their first win of the season over their "neighbors" from the East by a 7 to 6 count before 4500 frozen fans in the Browning field stands. This victory snapped a losing streak of nine games which started after the Moliners beat the Kewanee Boilermakers in the third game of last season's schedule. The winning of this game brought along with it the R. H. Blackman trophy presented by the Daily Dispatch which is kept in the possession of the winning school, until they are defeated in the annual inter-City battle.

MOLINE 12 EAST AURORA 0

Once the Moliners got the winning fever it was hard to give up so they came through with a 12 to 0 victory over the East Aurora Tomcats the next week, in a battle that made the Moliners look like a veteran ball club, which could have moved anything west of the Mississippi. The Moline passing honors of the evening went to Albert Stevens.

ROCK ISLAND 7 MOLINE 0

That was a hard one to swallow, but the Moliners put up a better battle than most fans had expected from them, as they held the Islanders to one touchdown and threatened to score themselves, except for a penalty tossed in here and there by the officials to bring them back out of range. It was Vern Stalens who went over for the single, that all important tally on an end run, that slipped away from the Moliners. Cliff Hyink had charge of the Maroons for that evening as well as for the East Aurora battle, while Sam Drake was back at the Army Camp trying to get his discharge.

MOLINE 14 WEST ROCKFORD 6

Although DeKalb was on the schedule, the Moliners met the "Rabs" in a delayed battle that should have been the second game of the season. Due to a Polio epidemic in that region the schools were late in opening, and it was the Rockford boys first game of the season, while the Moliners were making their exit. Experience proved a great factor in the final score as the Moliners spanked the Rabs 14 to 6, with Stevens and William McAdams doing the scoring honors.

Varsity Football Team

It was a game bunch of lads who appeared for the opening practice of the 1945 football season, as was proven by the battles they put up against several tough foes.

Youthful and handsome Jack Foley had complete charge of the sophomore candidates this year, and although the "Little Maroons" did not come through with a victory they tied in four battles and lost three.

They have the earmarks of an excellent future varsity team—a team which we are confident will prove valuable to M. H. S. in the football seasons yet to come.

Savanna

The Moline Maroons, 1945-46 edition of the basketball team started out their season with an easy 47 to 21 win over the Savanna cagers on the Wharton Fieldhouse floor, before an opening game crowd of 3500 fans. The Moliners lacked skill only in the free throw department as they missed 16 out of their 27 attempts. It was Coach Sam Drake's debut as the mentor of the team.

Kewanee

Upsetting the "Pre-Season Northwest Conference Champions" the Moliners rolled to their second win with a 37 to 31 upset over the Kewanee Boilermakers on the Moline hardwood, before 4000 excited onlookers. The Moliners were not to be stopped in the first half of their game as they clicked off 50% of their shots during that period. Assistant Coach Jack Foley took hold of the reins in Drake's absence due to Uncle Sam's procedure.

Rock Island

Filling the Rock Island gymnasium to the rafters, the Moline fans received a real treat as they saw their home team win over the Islander Crimson 30 to 28 in an overtime battle. It was 27 apiece at the end of the regulation battle and Ed Jawoisz and Don Greer did the tidy little bit of scoring for the Moliners during the extra three minutes of play to put them on top of both the Northwest Conference and Quad-City standings. Again Foley was calling the "signals."

Waukegan

Inaugurating a four game losing streak although they weren't aware of it at the time, the Moliners fell before the solid blows of the Waukegan Bulldogs by a 41 to 25 count. This was in the final game of a doubleheader special held in the Wharton Fieldhouse with East Moline and Morton of Cicero providing the fans with the first battle; East Moline was the victor. It wasn't until the second half that the Maroons fell behind the "Bulldogs."

Morton of Cicero

Trading opponents the East Moliners and Maroons held the second doubleheader in the fieldhouse the next night, with both of the local teams losing. Moline dropped a 38 to 31 decision to the Cicero lads for their second straight loss after starting the season with three wins. Coach Drake had returned and was now officially discharged from the Army.

Canton

With a revamped lineup starting the game, the Moliners still could not hit the road to victory as they were downed 45 to 44 by the Canton quintet. Ed Jawoisz was the only one of the regular starting five to play in the game with four new faces appearing in the other posts. The Maroons were behind throughout the whole game and came only as close as they were in the first few minutes.

Davenport

The second Quad-City battle put the Maroons out of their top berth spot in the standings as the Iowan rivals from Davenport pushed them back with a 33 to 37 fray, which held the interest of over 2700 fans packed into the "Blue Devils" gym. No team held more than an eight point lead in the game and Moline was leading throughout the first half. Gale Harter, back in the lineup again, was high point man with 10 points.

Basketball

East Moline

Getting back on the road to victory, the Moline Maroons edged out the East Moline Panthers 42 to 38 in a wild contest, as the two teams committed a total of 48 fouls. Gale Harter was again high point man with 11 tallies, and it was LaVerne Trevorow who came in during the fourth quarter and put the game on the winning side of the ledger.

Orion

46 to 35, that's the story of the Moline-Orion game with the Moliners coming out the victors, to give them a 5 to 4 win and lost record so far in the season. It was another easy win for the Moliners with the Orion lads pulling their only punch in the third quarter.

Galesburg

Back to the Northwest Conference race again; the Moliners upset another "Strong team" according to preseason experts. It was Galesburg who took the nasty spill by a 44 to 38 count in the Wharton Fieldhouse before 4000 fans. It wasn't until the last quarter that the Moliners took the lead on Ed Jawoisz's four straight buckets and Gene Larson's three gratis shots and a basket. This victory gave the Moliners the top berth security of four wins against no losses in the conference loop play with Monmouth scheduled as their next foe.

Monmouth

Although ahead throughout the entire game the Moliners had a tough time convincing a stubborn Monmouth quintet that Moline was the better team by a 45 to 43 margin in a fast game played on the Moline hardwood before 4000 applauding fans. Marion Knox almost upset the apple cart with his total of 23 tallies for the visiting quintet. Harter and Larson were tied with 13 tallies apiece.

Elgin

Foreign courts and top ranking teams played havoc with the Moline record during the next three games, as they started out against a tough Elgin quintet which had the advantage of retaining 4 veterans from last year's tournament team. The Maroons of Elgin stopped the Maroon and White cagers from the Plow City 33 to 37 after leading throughout the second half. The Moliners held a 16 to 14 lead at the half but fell behind in the third quarter.

Kewanee

With strange courts still amiss and tough teams providing the opposition, the Kewanee Boilermakers gained revenge for their earlier defeat at the hands of the Maroons. They stopped the Northwest Conference first place holders 49 to 35. The Kewanee lads held the Maroons scoreless in the final frame to accomplish their victory, while they were making 8 markers. It was the first Conference loss for the Maroons but they still retained their top spot rating.

DAVID McADAMS

Paris

Another game on a foreign court provided the third straight loss for the Maroons, as they dropped a 26 to 31 battle to the Paris Tigers. The Maroons held the Tigers to a single field goal in the first quarter, but the hosts popped back to take a 14 to 13 lead at the end of the half, and then went on to win. The starting Paris quintet played the entire game.

Rock Island

The return engagement with the Rock Island lads proved just as exciting as the first; the Moliners were again pushed into an overtime before they could beat the Crimson 31 to 30. Gale Harter played havoc with the Islander offense machine in the final quarter to tie up the game, only to have Vern Staelens put the Crimson back in the lead. Harter came right back, however, and sent the game into the overtime period. The count was 29 all at the end of the regulation game, and it was Al Stevens' bucket which cinched the game for the Moline quintet. Harter was high point man with 10 markers.

East Moline

Before a capacity crowd of over 5000 fans the Moline Maroons still hopefully clung to their Quad-City chances of championships as they again tripped the East Moline entries in the local conferences by a 30 to 26 count. The Moliners held the lead throughout the first half, but the Panthers found the going a little easier in the third frame as they took a 21 to 22 lead. The final quarter found the Maroons coming through and on to their fourth Quad-City victory against one loss.

Orion

The Orion five came close to pulling an upset on the Maroons in their second meeting of the season as they pushed the Plow City boys to a 25 to 24 count with LaVerne Trevorow dropping through the game-winning charity toss with one half a minute left in the fray.

Galesburg

The Northwest Conference crown was handed to the Moliners on the night they met the Galesburg quintet despite the 53 to 39 licking the Red Hot Streaks handed to the local cagers. The Monmouth quintet stopped the Kewanee Boilermakers, thus assuring the Moliners the first place berth in the Northwest Conference. The Galesburg lads could not be stopped as they hit on an amazing percentage of 41 on their shots while the Moliners "lagged" with 30%.

Monmouth

The Maroons found it hard to get tough with the Monmouth cagers after they had so handily handed them the Northwest Conference crown, but the Moliners nevertheless came through with a 48 to 43 victory over the Zippers to give them a final 8 wins and two loss standing in the Northwest Conference. Captain Ed Jawoisz was high point man for the Moliners with 16 points with Gene Larson following with 13.

Davenport

The third capacity crowd of the season filled the Wharton Fieldhouse to witness the championship game between the Davenport Blue Devils and the Moline Maroons in the Quad-City race. The Moliners, leading throughout the game, finally came through with the trophy by a 35 to 28 count, after 32 minutes of arduous play, which kept the fans on the edge of their seats throughout the battle. The lead was never over 5 points during the game, until the final two minutes of play when the Maroon center, Gene Larson, dropped in the final bucket of the game, and the Maroons stacked up another trophy in their now crowded case. It was the second straight year that the Moliners topped the Quad-City Conference.

Tournament Play

GLENN HUFFORD

The Moliners entered the East Moline Regional tourney with their hopes of making the merry jaunt to the University City with all the thrills, chills, and sorority girls (a combination of the first two) backed up by the Northwest Conference and Quad-City trophies. Erie was the first team to match their skill against that of the Moliners as the battle opened up the tourney.

The Maroons had little trouble in disposing of the opponents as they eased them out of the running by a 58 to 21 count with all ten of Moline's tournament squad getting into the battle.

East Moline had been placed in the upper bracket with the Moliners again this year as they have in the last three regional tourneys and Moline was still expected to go through without too much trouble. The Moliners had stopped the Hilltoppers twice before by 4 point margins and the Hilltoppers had not won a single Quad-City battle. The Maroons held true to form in the first half, piling up a 19 to 13 lead at the intermission. But in the third frame the Hilltoppers came back with 17 tallies against the Maroon's total of 13 to whittle the lead down to 2 points as the final stanza got under way. The last quarter stopped the Maroons however, as they were again outscored, this time 17 to 11 and this a 47 to 43 defeat.

The Hilltoppers went on to stop Rock Island and enter the Moline Sectional where they tripped up the Morrison Mallets, but were finally stopped by Kewanee in the finals. Kewanee was defeated in its first game in Champaign by a strong Centralia crew.

Coaches

Sam Drake: Coming back to Moline after serving in the capacity of an Army Captain in the European theatre, Coach Sam Drake arrived on the scene just one week before the first football game of the season. He met the boys and got acquainted with them in a hurry and took almost full charge in the first game. Then Coach Drake finally secured his discharge and was able to keep on coaching for M.H.S.

He coached Moline basketball with Jack Foley's assistance and held spring football drills as long as it was possible. This completes his first year as Moline High School varsity coach. Good Luck, and may he have many more.

Jack Foley: Jack's second year at Moline High proved more eventful than the first as he coached a winning soph football team and was assistant basketball coach. During his service in the basketball line he took over the squad in full for two weeks while Coach Drake was getting his discharge and won two rough games for the boys and the school.

Teaching first aid and cal along with Drake and aiding Cliff Hyink with baseball keeps this handsome young lad's time fully occupied.

C. W. Holmgren: Still the Moline High magician as far as we are concerned, Winnie Holmgren has more duties and gets them done faster and more accurately than any person we know. Taking charge of the field house and purchasing athletic equipment plus taking care of the other financial matters for every basketball and football game, along with coaching the tennis team and drawing up the Moline sport schedules, keeps this Physics teacher busy but never too busy to divulge a little offhand information to the press.

His cool quiet manner baffles many but to us it is a master piece. Congratulations, "Winnie" and may you aid Moline High many more years.

Cliff Hyink: Cliff received his first Moline High full time head coaching job last spring as he brought the sport of baseball to the Moline fans, and although they did not have a very good season the boys received many valuable tips and the experience will put them that much farther ahead this year.

It is always tough to start a new sport and especially one in which there is no deep local interest before hand, but Mr. Hyink carried the program through the summer and into the lower grades thus establishing the sport in the Moline area.

Plus all this he acted as head football coach until Sam Drake arrived and in Drake's absence he won and lost one game.

Rod Potter: Coming back to the plow city one week before the start of the state elimination process, Rod didn't have the chance to give a great display of his basketball coaching this year but he will be counted on next winter to bring his winning ways to Moline High and keep the Maroon and White colors where they are now in the annals of basketball.

At the present he is in charge of the war veterans in Moline High and working with boys agrees with him as you can readily see by his two up and coming youngsters.

Lloyd Clair, Sherman Paul, Jack Foley, Sam Drake, Cliff Hyink, Lamont Hultgren.

George Senneff: Although he no longer has any head coaching duties this gentleman could surely not be omitted from this list. If the team, regardless of the sport is going on a trip or just before a game and need a little cheering up Senneff is the boy who can give it to them. There is never a dull moment when he is around and now with his athletic director duties he is kept busy but not too busy to stop and watch the boys practice.

Bill Bean: Coaching track is difficult and maybe tiresome but the well known math teacher around Moline High seems to enjoy it and rate times distance takes on a different meaning to him on the cinder path. Receiving a full page tribute in the Harvester shop magazine this summer, made this Moline teacher blush, but to all who know him it was a tribute well deserved and way past due.

Carl Ekblad: Another new name on the Moline coaching list as of last fall, Ekblad has taken over the golf team and continued them on their winning ways by starting out the season with a Quad-City match to their favor.

This Chemistry teacher has the best chances of winning the state golf championship for Moline High of any of his predecessors, and this year may see the Moline lads walk off with it.

Lettermens' Club

A newly organized group this year, the Lettermens' Club under the sponsorship of Mr. Ashbaucher, took charge of numerous "service projects" and assisted in the carrying on of school functions.

Ushering in the lunch line and in the auditorium during programs, sponsoring educational and entertaining evenings, and having social affairs with their "dates". This club was extremely active especially for a new organization.

All major letter winners may be members of the club if they desire, and if they pay their monthly dues.

For several semesters the lettermen have wanted to be an organized body and they have more than proved their value to the school.

The officers elected for the first year are:

Track

The track field in the day time, need we say more?

Track

With two Sophomore Quad-City Championship Squads making up this year's varsity team the track prospects of 1946 are the brightest in recent years. In the initial meet of the season Moline clashed with Monmouth at Brownings Field and managed to "trounce" them a 141-147. As this book goes to press the Maroons are preparing for the all important Geneseo Relays in which between 30 and 40 schools will be represented.

Bearing the brunt of this season's campaign will be: Sprinters, Tom Eipper, Willie McAdams, Ted Nelson, Albert Stevens, George Dellos; Hurdlers, Bob Hondley, and Laverne Trevor; High Jumpers, Willie McAdams, Curt Trevor, Jerry Sivertson; Broad Jumpers, Bob Hondley, Willie McAdams, George Dellos; Pole Vaulters, Curt Trevor, Bill Chapman, Don Schierbrock, Jerry Sivertson; Distance Men, Wally Schultze, Gerald McKenzie, Dale Winter, Charlie West, Glenn Ogden, Harvey Carothers, Bill Dorwood, and Frances Schrempf.

On May 21, the track team placed first in the Northwest Conference!
Not bad, boys!

Boys' Tennis

After a strenuous fall season in which the Moline tennis team captured first place in the Quad-City meet and won other contests, they again take up their rackets for the important spring season. Under the able coaching of Mr. Holmgren, Moline is well represented this year by Doren Russler, Bob Holmgren, Bob Richards, Curt Trevor, Bob Beldin and several fine players.

Good Luck tennis team!!

Golf

Fore! So starts another golf season but we are a little late by the time this gets around to you because the high school spring golf schedule is probably already completed and the results of the state tourney are at hand.

Just the same we will give a forecast of what we think will happen and by whom. Harold Brown, Bob Bartlett, Don Greer, Wayne Johnson, and probably Jim Burton, or Roger Struck will be the first five men on the squad. They have a very good chance of repeating last year's performance at Champaign when they ended up in a tie for third place with New Trier but lost out by a one stroke margin on the playoff to give them fourth place.

Carl Ekblad is the coach this year as he took over the sport last fall in the absence of Elof Peterson. In the fall tourney the Maroons placed second in the Northwest Conference and first in the Quad-City.

Row I: W. Ferry, W. Dorwood.
Row II: W. Johnson, Mr. Ekblad, J. Burton, D. Greer.

Row I: L. Strafford, F. Mahar, E. Larson.
 Row II: R. Akers, K. Hoover, D. Lewis.
 Row III: J. Yolton, J. Stormont, R. Johnson.

Baseball

At first it seemed very difficult to arouse interest in a sport newly introduced into the School system, but under the efficient directing and coaching of Cliff Hyink, baseball more than succeeded. This sport was carried into the lower grades, then as interest was revived, gradually became more popular.

As this book goes to press, Moline is just beginning its 1946 baseball season.
 Good Luck!!

The schedule of the games to be played is as follows:

April 9—Tuesday—Davenport at Moline—3:30

 Row 2: J. Lambert, M. Johnson, T. Nelson, Coach Klier, R. Palmgren, W. Smith, S. Strangard.

Tumblers

Shreiks, and laughs, and "ahs" of admiration always heralded the tumblers whenever they performed their miraculous gymnastic feats before an audience. This group of fine athletes, under the expert guidance of Mr. Klier, carried on an extensive program of physical training throughout the entire year. The highlight of the season, however, was a fine performance given by the tumblers before a large crowd at the Wharton Field House, during one of the basketball games.

Precision timing and strong muscles are two of the personal qualifications an accomplished tumbler should possess, and these boys seem to have plenty of what it takes.

B. Johnson, N. Dunn, J. Efflandt, M. Fisher, J. Blazer, P. Tillberg, M. Blazer, A. Hauberg.

Girls' Tennis

A really fine team of "tennis terrors" under the guidance and supervision of Coach Holmgren, made the tennis season of '45 and '46 a very active one.

A few veteran players remained from the year before, namely Betty Johnson and Nancy Dunn; they formed what might be called the nucleus of the group, which played in most of the tournaments.

Some of the girls began the season nil where the knowledge of tennis was concerned, thanks to the coaching of Mr. Holmgren finished as accomplished players.

A few of the important games played during the spring '46 season were the following:

April 26	Rock Island	here
May 1	Davenport	here
May 7	East Moline	there
May 10	Rock Island	there
May 14	Davenport	there
May 21	East Moline	here

These girls are real champions in basketball.

Girls' Athletics

Baseball and basketball, gymnastic feats and stunts comprise a few of the activities of the girls' physical education classes. Swimming is a special 4 period a week course complete in itself.

Throughout the school year the G.A.A. carries on numerous extra curricular sports.

Among the organized activities tournaments and games of alley soccer, archery, badminton, baseball, basketball, bowling, swimming, tumbling, and volley ball are played. Bowling, skating, horseback riding, tennis, coasting, etc., compose the unorganized activities of the G.A.A. A certain number of points are allotted for so many hours of sports or games participated in; these are applied toward obtaining a letter. Six hundred points are needed to secure a G.A.A., 1200 points for an "M" and 1600 points for an "I".

All of these various programs are under the supervision and guidance of Mrs. Carlson, the physical education instructor.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

The graduating class of '46 perhaps welcomed peace and victory more than any other section of the school. Its boys were dangerously close to the time when they would be called to serve in actual combat against the foe. The signing of the peace, however, relieved the dread and fear of the future that prevailed in the heart of every mother of every senior boy.

It is over at last—and the termination of the war leaves the future free for this class to make plans for higher education or a start in business experience. May they find success and prosperity in the future world, of which they will hold the reins.

Heading the class of '46 are President Harry Peterson, Vice President Carlene Anderson, and Secretary-Treasurer Joan Wells.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB

Under the able leadership of Mr. Bealmer, the Fellowship club spent an interesting and enjoyable year.

Banquets in the cafeteria, renewed for the first time since the war, enabled the club to have many fine speakers and good programs.

The highlight of the year was as usual the A. D. C.—Fellowship production, which again scored a smashing success.

Another big event was a joint meeting of the A. D. C. and Fellowship clubs at a Christmas banquet.

GIRLS HI-Y

A very large organization, the Girl's Hi-Y participated in a great variety of interesting functions throughout the year. Gay meetings, those hilarious and famous slumber parties, sponsoring "after game dances" with the Boy's Hi-Y, and sending representatives to the youth conference in Galesburg, these were a few of the principal ventures of a fine club—the Girl's Hi-Y.

BOY'S HI-Y

Although functioning without a sophomore group, the boy's Hi-Y experienced an unforgettable year for all concerned. Several interesting trips to Camp Haugberg, numerous parties at the Hi-Y club rooms, and the weekly meetings kept these clubs far above average. Both clubs also sent groups to the Youth Conference at Galesburg to study such problems as racial prejudice, personality and boy-girl relationships. The senior boys who are leaving Hi-Y now become eligible for the newly re-organized Phalanx Club.

THE BAND

Marching down the football field, playing during the half of any home basketball game, the Moline High School band—dressed in snappy maroon uniforms—are an ensemble to be proud of. Mr. E. E. Youngdahl, the band director, and his musicians practice for one period each day preparing for the selections played at athletic events. They also managed to find time to present an annual spring concert.

THE CHOIR

Entertaining at various school programs, broadcasting on the radio, presenting Christmas Vespers, or giving the annual production "One Night of Melody," the choir invariably captured their audience with their fine renditions of musical numbers.

The vocal musical department has also many other divisions; among these are the Girls' Choir, which meets on Monday, Wednesday, Friday, period five, the Boys' Ensemble, the Girls' Sextette, and the Boys' Quartette.

The choir and all of the other musical branches in the vocal field are under the expert guidance of Miss Becker, with Miss Stevenson as the accompanist.

THE LITERARY BOARD

Projects of a literary concern are planned for and executed by the Literary Board of Control, an organization composed of a boy and a girl elected from each class, and the heads of the L. O. T.

This board has several members from the ranks of the faculty, who spend time and effort assisting the student members of this committee. These ex-officio members are Mr. Dolph Lain, Miss Barbara Garst, and Miss Ella Cockrell.

The Board holds meetings in which they discuss dramatic productions, debates, and the literary publications of M. H. S., this organization also plans and has the literary banquet in the Spring.

THE STUDENT CONGRESS

A student congress after game dance.
 Working at the game.

Newly organized this year, the student congress has greatly increased school spirit by sponsoring many projects for student enjoyment and benefit. "After game dances," fine programs, unusual pep sessions, a new recreation room, parties, and helpful improvements around the school buildings, all have had their origination in this organization.

Student Congress, we salute you! May your future years prove to be as profitable to M. H. S. as your first has been.

DEBATE

Commendable speaking skill, persistent study, plus detailed research; these are a few of the necessary qualifications which compose a reputable debate team such as the one pictured above.

"Resolved that all able bodied male citizens shall have one year of compulsory military training, before attaining the age of twenty-four." This was the topic used during the debate season of 1945-46, an impressive title, and a difficult subject.

Under the proficient guidance of Miss Barbara Garst, the team won first place in the Northwest Conference; a creditable record indeed.

On the tournament team the affirmative side consisted of Jack Lyons and James Walker, while Eleanor Beling and Richard Hanson constituted the negative side.

BATON TWIRLERS and CHEERLEADERS

The majorettes, led by high strutting Bonnie Wisdom and De Wayne Roush, presented a variety of excellent selections and programs between the halves of both basketball and football games.

Our cheerleaders, attired in attractive maroon and white costumes, are familiar sights to several thousands of people who attended the basketball and football games this year. Joline, our blonde cheerleading captain, known throughout the state for her remarkable gymnastic feats and excellent leading ability, is ably assisted by a very capable team of yell leaders.

Several new members were added to the cheer leading team this year by the first election held by the entire student body for this purpose.

Original compositions, both of poetry and prose, written by various M. H. S. students constitute the "Imp," which was sent to press for the fourth consecutive time this year.

Mary Frieden, the editor of the 1946 publication, received assistance from a staff of fourteen students, and from Miss Ella Cockrell, the faculty advisor.

The literary works which are printed, are carefully selected from a number of submitted selections, and well merit the acclaim and the praise of the "Imp" readers.

The humorous antics of a man valiantly attempting to tell the truth for twenty-four hours, and thus win a 10,000 dollar wager, were the main topics of the senior class play presented on October 10, 1945.

The 10,000 dollar wager was brought about by an agreement among three partners in a brokerage firm, and a customer.

Robert Bennett, portrayed by Doren Russler, makes a bet with Mr. Ralston, enacted by Jack Lyons, Dick Donnelly, depicted by Donald Greer, and a customer, Clarence Van Dusen, enacted by Robert Ainsworth. This wager is kept extremely secretive, known only to the four involved.

Many humorous and often embarrassing situations develop concerning Bennett's fiancée Miss Ralston, portrayed by Barbara Carlson, a set of "fun loving" twins, and other members of the families concerned.

"All's well that ends well," and strange to say, Robert Bennett succeeds in telling the pure and unadulterated truth for twenty-four hours, thus winning the ten thousand dollar wager.

"TOMORROW THE WORLD"

"Tomorrow The World," a three act play relating the story of a Nazi youth in America, was presented by the junior class in the school auditorium on November 29, 1945.

Emil Bruckner, a supercilious Nazi refugee sent to America at the request of Michael Frame, was skillfully portrayed by Rod Bladel.

Emil, at first startled by the lack of disciplinary formality in America, was contemptuous of its citizens and government.

Professor Michael Frame, enacted by Richard Hanson, nine year old Patricia, acted by Nancy Williams, and Michael's jealous sister, portrayed by Bonnie Bartlett, all find their household suddenly disrupted by Emil.

Miss Leona Richards, Michael's charming fiancée, depicted by Sally Pierce, is also an object for the scorn and ridicule of Emil's warped mind. The climax, however, finds the Nazi youth repentant for his many misdeeds, and fully aware of the attributes of America, its citizens, and its democratic government.

CAST

Detective Anderson	Bert Beuoy
Fleming	Kenneth Hoover

Dr. Wells	Richard Hendricks

Mysterious Man	Henry Pollner

Amid the setting of haunted houses, shadowy criminals, horrible murders, and hysterical maids the Dramatic Club presented their widely publicized mystery drama "The Bat." This terrorizing play concerns that arch-fiend the "Bat," who after an eight year absence returns to haunt and murder.

Stolen bank funds, bell-ringing ghosts, closets containing brutally murdered corpses, all of these gruesome situations exist when a diabolical homicidal maniac such as the "Bat" is lurking in every shadow—waiting to waylay his chosen victims.

The supporting cast did an excellent job assisting the main characters of the play, and an unusually large audience was present on February 22, 1946, when the mystery was given.

The final disclosure of the "Bat," who was none other than the police detective Anderson, portrayed by Bert Beuoy, came as a great surprise to the entire school and audience.

The very competent director of the play was Miss Barbara Garst.

Row 1: R. Hanson, B. Anderson, B. Bartlett, J. Lyons.
 Row 2: B. Johnson, M. Hansen, M. Bevan, B. Miller, F. Norton.
 Row 3: J. Walker, R. Bladel, S. Steen, J. Foss, B. Closen, D. Holder.

"MACBETH"

The sixth annual Shakespearean production by students of M. H. S. was presented in the school auditorium on March 29, 1946.

The immortal Lady Macbeth, dominating and selfish, was excellently portrayed by Bonnie Bartlett; while Macbeth, whose greatest fault was his "vaulting ambition which o'erleapt itself, and fell on the other" continually, was expertly depicted by Jack Lyons.

This ever famous and infinitely human tale of murder and grasping selfishness is an excellent example of human beings in the clutch of evil ambitions.

The supporting cast did an exceedingly fine job of portraying the various other characters in the drama.

The spirit of Shakespeare, buskin booted and magnificent, permeated the atmosphere, and seemed to transport the audience and cast back to the glorious Elizabethan Age.

"Macbeth" was presented under the efficient directing of Miss Barbara Garst, and in co-operation with Miss Ella Cockrell as the advisor.

IOWA CITY 12 MOLINE 6

In the first battle of the season the Moliners put an inexperienced team on the field possessing only 7 lettermen and a few sophomore gridders of last year. They were outdone by 12 points in the first half but came back in the second half to make a ball game out of the evening leaving the final score Moline 6, Iowa City Little Hawks 12. The Maroons were on the Little Hawks 12 yardline as the battle ended and threatened more than once in the second half. Special honors for that evening go to George Dellos and Dave McAdams for their running and tackling ability respectively.

KEWANEE 6 MOLINE 0

The next game carded on the Maroons schedule was with the West Rockford Rabs, but the battle was cancelled due to a polio epidemic in that city. An extra week of practice did not hurt the Moliners any though, as they met the Kewanee Boilermakers the next week on the Moline gridiron. Except for a touchdown drive in the final quarter by the Boilermakers, the game held all the properties of a thriller, the Drake gridders had a march of their own after the kickoff being stopped on the 2½ yard line.

The Pageant of the Years

LIKE stars in their ordered course, the years flow on in a never-ending pageant of awakening spring, promising summer, fruitful autumn. Some are years attended by joy, peace, achievement; others are blighted by sorrow, war, or frustration.

But the seasons go on.

These days of destroying war have passed, to be followed by years of peace. And the new materials, new methods, new equipment, strife-born in the urgency of war for man's destruction, are being turned to his benefit.

It was the first World War that pictured the tremendous possibilities of radio and motorized transportation. It was the recent Global War that tested and proved the value of air transportation, of plastics made from the products of the farm, of wider distribution of food products through dehydration.

And this war period—like all similar times of strife—demanded greater production with limited man power—proved again the importance of man's relationship to the soil—of the need for improved farming practices and improved equipment.

All during the war period, John Deere had an eye to the future, and today is ready to meet the challenge of peace with new machines and improvements in equipment, to the end that the unfolding pageant of years may bring a richer and finer way of life the world over.

The Finis - - - 1946 "M"

The expression, thank-you, sometimes seems inadequate and defective when attempting to express gratefulness to someone whom you owe a debt of gratitude; nevertheless, since I can think of no expression more fitting than this well known assertion, I would like to say thank you to many people who have contributed much time and effort toward the publication of the 1946 "M".

Mr. LaVerne Lournsbury of the "Book of the Year Association," this annual couldn't have progressed without your able and valuable assistance.

Mr. Paul of Paul's Studio in Rock Island, your fine photography and excellent ideas have brightened our yearbook immeasurably.

To the G. R. Grubb engraving company, the Flanigan Pearson Printing Company, and to the Crafto Cover Company, a big thank you for your wonderful work.

To Mr. Mills of the Moline Dispatch, and to all the city's businessmen for their many advertisements—thanks.

To "Ashie", the faculty advisor of the 1946 "M", and to a long suffering and faithful staff, THANK YOU!
